

PERMISSIVE ACCESS

This permissive footpath crosses arable land and leads to a mature woodland on the perimeter of Tatton Park. The farmland is being managed to benefit farmland birds such as lapwing, tree sparrows and grey partridges. Please keep to the route of the path and keep dogs on leads in order to minimise disturbance to the birds.

This access has been provided under the Department for Environment, Food & Rural Affairs' farm conservation schemes as managed by Natural England, which help farmers and land managers protect and improve the countryside, its wildlife and history. It is permissive access and no new rights of way are being created. Existing rights of way are not affected. Please follow the Countryside Code and observe any other requirements shown above. Do not disturb wildlife, livestock or other visitors and in particular keep dogs under control. This is working farmland so please take care; people using this site do so at their own risk. Access ends 2014.

For access related queries please call the Access Management Unit on 01902 693218 (Office Hours).
