

PERMISSIVE ACCESS

This permissive path enables walkers to join up a circular route using public footpaths and walk through the fields instead of down the adjacent country lane. The walk is not far from the Kingcombe Nature Reserve to the north. A short walk along the path at the south end enables walkers to join the Wessex Ridgeway long distance path.

This access has been provided under the Department for Environment, Food & Rural Affairs' farm conservation schemes as managed by Natural England, which help farmers and land managers protect and improve the countryside, its wildlife and history. It is permissive access and no new rights of way are being created. Existing rights of way are not affected. Please follow the Countryside Code and observe any other requirements shown above. Do not disturb wildlife, livestock or other visitors and in particular keep dogs under control. This is working farmland so please take care; people using this site do so at their own risk. Access ends on 30th April 2016.

For access related queries please call the Access Management Unit on 01902 693218 (Office Hours).
