

PERMISSIVE ACCESS

Both permissive open access and bridleway paths have been created across this farm for you to enjoy the views and nature. The open access enables a route to the Scheduled Ancient Monument of Flixborough Saxon Nunnery and site of All Saints medieval church and burial ground. The bridleway provides a circular route for both walkers and horse riders. Numerous mammal species (deer, hare) may be seen and farmland birds such as tree sparrow, yellowhammer and reed bunting are around.

Please keep to the designated access areas and keep dogs on a lead.

This access has been provided under the Department for Environment, Food & Rural Affairs' farm conservation schemes as managed by Natural England, which help farmers and land managers protect and improve the countryside, its wildlife and history. It is permissive access and no new rights of way are being created. Existing rights of way are not affected. Please follow the Countryside Code and observe any other requirements shown above. Do not disturb wildlife, livestock or other visitors and in particular keep dogs under control. This is working farmland so please take care; people using this site do so at their own risk. Access ends on 31st July 2018.
