

PERMISSIVE ACCESS

Use these permissive accesses to join up with several public footpaths enabling a variety of routes within close proximity of Toller Porcorum. The route along the old railway line is level walking although it is accessed from other public footpaths. There are Sites of Special Scientific Interest on the farm, accessible by these paths, as well as an attractive path through a short length of woodland across the River Hooke. Look out for an abundance of attractive and unusual flowering plants.

This access has been provided under the Department for Environment, Food & Rural Affairs' farm conservation schemes as managed by Natural England, which help farmers and land managers protect and improve the countryside, its wildlife and history. It is permissive access and no new rights of way are being created. Existing rights of way are not affected. Please follow the Countryside Code and observe any other requirements shown above. Do not disturb wildlife, livestock or other visitors and in particular keep dogs under control. This is working farmland so please take care; people using this site do so at their own risk. Access ends on October 31st May 2018.

For access related queries please call the Access Management Unit on 01902 693218 (Office Hours).
